

Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Date: April 30, 2015

Contact: Tessa Huxley or Craig Hudon
212 267-9700, thuxley@bpcparks.org
chudon@bpcparks.org

Hear about a shy earthworm and a lonely caterpillar at: Stories for All Ages with Storyteller Mary Ann Schmidt

Date: Saturday June 6, 2015
Time: 11:00 am
Place: Teardrop Park
Battery Park City, Lower Manhattan
(Access: Warren or Murray Street)
Subways: 1, 2, 3, A, C, J to Chambers Street / E to WTC
4, 5, 6 to Brooklyn Bridge / R to City Hall
Cost: FREE!
Information: <http://bpcparks.org/event/stories-for-all-ages-2/>

On Saturday June 6, 2015 Battery Park City Parks Conservancy will present an entertaining morning of storytelling by Mary Ann Schmidt in lovely Teardrop Park. She will be telling “Herman and Marguerite,” a story about a shy earthworm and a lonely caterpillar, as well as other stories.

Storytelling – humankind’s oldest art form – teaches as well as entertains both young and old. Tucked away in magical Teardrop Park, this event will excite the imagination and encourage an interplay between the stories being told and the unique features of the park. Sitting on the park’s green grass, listeners embark on a wonderful journey as Mary Ann Schmidt weaves adventure-filled stories.

Mary Ann Schmidt is the storytelling teacher at Manhattan School for Children. She works primarily in the lower grades, visiting classrooms regularly and recounting world folk tales, fables and legends from a variety of cultures. She weaves imaginative and fantastic stories, often related to themes and concepts that the children are studying, such as community-building and problem solving.

The Battery Park City Parks Conservancy is the non-profit organization that manages, operates and maintains the parks of Battery Park City. It offers over 1,500 events and outdoor recreational activities for families, children, teens, and adults from May 1 through October 31. For a free 2015 program calendar, call 212-267-9700 or e-mail info@bpcparks.org.